Rotisserie Hockey League News

April 8th, 1991

Mike Poplawski - Home: 381-0230 Work: 356-2338

Congratulations to Bruce, who claimed his first Rotisserie Hockey League Championship in convincing fashion, finishing 12 standings points ahead of Kelly. This was not the largest margin ever, as Carlos won by a margin of 17 points in 1987-88.

Bruce's team dominated the league in its 2nd year, but not by dominating any particular category (no first-place finishes in any of the six categories). The team featured solid performances from forwards and goaltenders, but dominant defensemen led the team to the title. Ray Bourque, Al MacInnis, Brian Leetch and Scott Stevens were a pricey lot proven to be worth the money!

A tight race for 2nd place was won by Kelly. The team was led by MVP candidates Brett Hull and Steve Larmer and led the League in Goals and Power Play Goals. A weak defense cost the team a serious run at first, but Kelly finishes in the money for the first time in League history.

Third place was stolen by Wes in the last month of the season. A total of 36 players share in the glory (the record of 41 players used by Mike in 1987-88 still stands). Vezina/Calder Trophy favourite Ed Belfour led a team that was leveled by injuries to a surprise finish.

Fourth place was wrapped up by Chris, who was narrowly edged out by Wes. The team was led by playmakers such as Ron Francis, Mark Recchi, Joe Sakic and Adam Oates. The League's weakest goaltending, especially down the stretch, cost Chris a shot at finishing in the money.

Fifth place was locked up by defending Champion Carlos, who may have suffered due to a proxy Auction Draft Bidder. Nevertheless, new addition Theoren Fleury proved to be a steal.

Sixth place belongs to Doug, as we round out the teams that finished over the .500 mark. A contingent of skaters led by Wayne Gretzky (the League's highest paid player), third strongest in the League, could not overcome a poor goaltending corps.

1990-91 League Runner-Up Mike fell to 7th (and last among established teams) by losing nearly every gamble taken. Jeremy Roenick and a revitalized Kelly Hrudey could not counteract the effects of "retirements" (Glenn Anderson), "saviours" (Denis Savard, and bizarre "lineup selection" (Rob Brown and Ulf Dahlen actually sitting out games). A team cannot win if 15 players underperform and here's your proof.

Manuel had a quiet year accumulating a handful of underpaid rising stars to carry into 1991-92. The team was disappointing in that there was no nucleus of steady performers, probably due to the 12 rookies who appeared during the year, some of those not lasting very long with the team.

Now some business:

All debt in the League for the completed Season is due to me before April 15th. Cheques (or cash if I see you) will be issued to winners on that day.

This is the last Rotisserie League that I will be providing statistical updates for at no cost. The time involved (approximately 2 hours per week) and the expense and time to obtain newspapers containing the statistics necessary has long outweighed the fun that I have maintaining the spreadsheets and entering the data. I would appreciate $10 from each participant in next year's League to compensate me for my efforts and expenses.

Manuel spent 111 less than the average team after the Auction Draft. It is my personal assessment that this could be applied as a savings towards next Season for him. As there may be an expansion draft to accommodate new players and assessing the level of talent on Manuel's team, the League would probably want to consider granting Manuel a waiver from losing players or granting the aforementioned savings.
